

SPEAKERS:

Speaker: Heather White, Private Consultant

Heather White has been involved in education and mental health for over twenty years and has offered training experiences to thousands of participants. Since 1996, she has been increasingly involved in conflict resolution, team development and organizational wellness. She has held a variety of roles in staff development, Employee Assistance, workplace training, change initiatives and project management. Heather has been teaching at Memorial University, Faculty of Education since 1999. She has been certified as a mediator through the University of Windsor and runs a small private practice. She holds a Master of Education in Educational Psychology from MUN, a B.A. honors in Psychology and Law from Carleton University, a Graduate Certificate in Teaching from MUN and has completed additional graduate studies in Education at University of Ottawa. Heather is certified by the Canadian Counseling Association.

- Ms. White's Topic: Information to come!!